

Crow Identification Activity

Answers

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| 1. This crow is less susceptible to West Nile Virus.             | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow | <input type="checkbox"/> American Crow            |
| 2. This crow lives widely across North America.                  | <input type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow            | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> American Crow |
| 3. This crow lives in areas such as fields and open woodland.    | <input type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow            | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> American Crow |
| 4. This crow is larger and has broader wingtips.                 | <input type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow            | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> American Crow |
| 5. When it calls, it leans forward and fluffs its neck feathers. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow | <input type="checkbox"/> American Crow            |
| 6. Its call is a full-throated series of “caw” notes.            | <input type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow            | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> American Crow |
| 7. Its legs and beak are slimmer.                                | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow | <input type="checkbox"/> American Crow            |
| 8. This crow is a well-known predator of other bird’s nests.     | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Fish Crow | <input type="checkbox"/> American Crow            |